

Grateful Clients Share Their Stories...

Brian writes: "Thank you for helping with 'White Boy.' You people are heaven sent. Here is a picture of him and 'Baby' a weird little girly with a deformed claw. Thank you again."

Jason writes: "Our cat became sick at a time when we couldn't afford it. We were told about your Stray Cat Alliance and we were able to get the doctor's appointment. The procedure cost us much more but the importance was evident by that point so we rearranged our budget and covered the other costs! 'Jar Jar' is fine now and I want to make sure you know how important it is just to get people to bring their cats to the vet! Keep paying for exams and the owners will step up, I'm sure."

Gerri writes: "Shy, young female black cat came to our home. She got so hungry that she finally would let us pet her. Discovering she was very pregnant, I contacted Catcare Ltd, who then contacted SCA to help with the costs. She was fixed and is now a happy, healthy, very playful young kitty."

LH writes: "I just wanted to take a minute to say thanks again. People like you are fairly rare these days, and I can't tell you how refreshing it is to find someone who is so willing to help those in need of it. I really appreciate your helping me get my cat medical attention so quickly, and just so you know, my kitty is doing very well."

JS writes: "I thank you very much for helping with the $35 for veterinary care. 'Squirt' is my life since my son passed away August 25, 2003. He was my only child. So 'Squirt' is my family. He loves to eat fruit and he is so funny."

Thanks to John Welsh, who helps transport kitties to the veterinarian for people who do not have cars. He has come through for many, many caregivers who have emergencies with their kitties!

Board Member Spotlight: Cathy Bill

Cathy Bill has been a board member since SCA's inception in 2001. She has served as treasurer and secretary. She is a true cat lover and rescuer. She has fostered countless kittens and found them homes; she has administered flea treatments and vaccines for SCA's cats. She volunteers also for Pro Bone-O, Florence Area Humane Society and Pet Adoption Network. She also served as coordinator for Eugene branch of the Feral Cat Coalition of Oregon. She has a wealth of information on cats and is a great asset to SCA. Thanks, Cathy!

Oregon Veterinary Medical Association's Companion Animal award for his bravery and inducted into the Oregon Animal Hall of Fame. Several months later, he won a Diamond Collar Award given by the Oregon Humane Society! In fact, Cassidy just has just returned from the Wild West Veterinary Conference in Reno, Nevada where his heartwarming story was shared with veterinary professionals from around the country. But Cassidy isn't just in it for the fame and glory! He recently passed his temperament screening and is now on his way to becoming a Delta Society Pet Partner. Cassidy spends many happy hours visiting places such as Olive Plaza and Sheldon Park assisted living homes. He loves to snuggle and cuddle and brings joy to the residents he visits. Faces light up when they see the handsome guy whose bravery and courage have made him a favorite everywhere he goes. When not 'at work' Cassidy loves the life he shares with Randi Golub and his happy cat family. He is a true 'rags to riches' story.

Please give generously to SCA to help stray cats like Cassidy find the loving homes that they deserve so much!

Stray Cat Alliance Our Mission

The SCA is dedicated to: providing low-income cat caregivers and guardians with support, advice, and financial assistance for cat food, spay/neuter services, and veterinary care; assisting people who care for feral cat colonies; encouraging people to feed, spay and neuter and care for stray cats in their area; educating the public about the importance of spaying and neutering companion animals; preventing cruelty, abuse and neglect of cats; serving as a resource to other animal welfare organizations.
